WOMAN TRAPS BURGLAR IN RIVERSIDE DRIVE HOME

WOMAN LOCKS UP BURGLAR IN HER DRESSING ROOM AS POLICE SEARCH DRIVE ROOF

Shot Wakes Her as He Climbs in Window and She Turns Key When He Hides.

ON RIVERSIDE AT DAWN

Quartermaster Captain, in Pajamas, Directs Hunt in Army Style.

Policeman Tim Sullivan, ordered from a police signal booth to answer call for help against burglars sent to Lieut. Morrison of the West 100th Street Station from No. 214 Riverside Drive at half past four o'clock this morning, found Capt. Melvin R. Ginn, U. S. A., patrolling the side-walk in front of the house in full regulation pajamas and armed with a .45 calibre automatic pistol.

"You will proceed with the least possible delay to the roof of the building," said the Captain, "and search the building for an enemy force—I should say a gosh-blamed sneak thief—that is working his way down through the building. I shall take station here."

Tim Sullivan proceeded. He searched the roof. No burglar. He came down one flight and received the assurance of tousle-headed and formally attired tenants that the burglar was not among them. Going down the next flight, he heard a shot. Sullivan popped his head out a front window.

"Assemble on the third floor front flat," shouted the Captain to him enthusiastically. "He attempted an advance, but retired under our fire."

Sullivan went down to the third floor. Mrs. Pearl Noble opened the door for him.

"I've got him, officer!" she proudly told the blushing Tim Sullivan. "Come fight in, I'm sure I don't mind in a case like this."

She pointed to the door of her dressing room.

"He is locked in there," she said.

"You see I was asleep in my room when I heard a shot and this man came climbing through from the fire escape and ran into the dressing room. So I just hopped out of bed and locked the door. That's why I haven't even had time to put my shoes and stockings on."

Sullivan unlocked the door and walked in, revolver in hand. He found Edward Pearson of No. 309 West 112th Street squeezed between the wall and a dresser. In Pearson's pocket the policeman found watches belonging to John H. Shetson and John Nichols, who have lodgings with Mrs. Noble.

The prisoner was in his stocking feet. His shoes were found on the first floor fire escape landing outside the window of Captain Ginn's apartment.

Capt. Ginn was joyous as he saw the policeman and his prisoner off for the station in a taxicab.

It was obvious that persons down at the Army Building who deprecate the Q. M. C.'s qualifications for action in combat are in a way to hear something.

Magistrate Levine in West Side Court held Pearson in $10,000 bail pending examination.

SCREAM OF NURSE, ATTACKED IN NIGHT, AROUSES HOSPITAL

Woman Tried to Cut Off Her Hair, She Charges, but Fled When She Awoke.

SHE ALLEGES JEALOUSY.

Victim Says Others Sought to Oust Her Because She Is Too Attractive.

The Brownsville East New York Hospital was thrown into a turmoil at 2 o'clock this morning by the wild screams of Miss Josephine Reilly, supervisor of nurses. She declared she had been attacked in her room and an attempt made to cut off her hair.

Nurses and internes and attendants turned out and searched high and low for a man with a pair of shears but discovered no stranger. If an attack had been made, it was declared, it was by some one in the building.

Miss Reilly, who was across the seas as a war nurse, is blonde, more than passingly attractive and has the reputation of being a capable young woman.

"It was no man who attacked me," she said. "It was a woman and I know who she was. About 2 o'clock this morning I was awakened by something cold on my face. I awoke to find a pair of shears on my face and they clicked as I jumped up and screamed."

"The woman ran and got away from me. When I retired I put my hair up in two braids and it was the evident intention of my assailant to clip the braids while I slept. She cut only a few strands."

Hyman Rayfield, President of the Board of Directors of the hospital, has started an investigation, and another investigation is said to be under way by the City Hospital Board.

There is talk of friction among the nurses on account of religious differences. Although the hospital is a Jewish one, the Christian nurses number about one in ten in the institution. The rumors of jealousy on the part of the Jewish nurses was denied by Miss Elizabeth Nanes, Superintendent of the hospital.

"Miss Reilly," she said, "was out with me in my automobile last March when the machine was struck by a taxicab. Miss Reilly's neck was injured and she suffered from shock and hasn't recovered from it. As a matter of fact, it had been determined by the directors that she would have to go, and this action took place no later than last night. There were two nurses, friends of hers, in the room at the time and I don't see how any attack could be made on her."

"Miss Nanes," said Miss Reilly, "has been trying to get me out for some time. She said I was too attractive for the position and that it would be better if I found another position. After the attack made upon me this morning I don't want to spend another night under this roof. I have just sent in my resignation."

The resignation of Miss Reilly was followed by those of Miss Mary Hartly, superintendent of night nurses; Miss Margaret Dunne, Miss Mary Simpson and Miss Lillian Astor, and it was said others are to come.

Miss Hughes a Bride To-Day; Weds C. L. Waddell of New York

MISS CATHERINE HUGHES.

Washington Ceremony Followed by Reception to Many Noted Guests.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—This afternoon at the Bethlehem Chapel of the Washington Cathedral the wedding of Miss Catherine, daughter of Secretary of State and Mrs. Charles E. Hughes, and Chauncey Lockhart Waddell of New York took place.

The company was small, as the space in the chapel was limited, but at the reception in the Pan-American Union Building, provision was made for several hundred guests.

The wedding ceremony was performed by Bishop Alfred Harding of Washington, assisted by Dr. W. S. Abernathy, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church.

Miss Elizabeth Kirkland of Nashville, Tenn., was maid of honor. The matrons of honor were Mrs. Charles Evans Hughes Jr., the bride's sister-in-law, and Mrs. J. R. Dunlap of Akron, O., Mr. Waddell's sister.

Gerald Fessenden of New York was best man and the ushers were Charles Evans Hughes Jr., Ralph Dunlap of Akron, O.; James Alexander of Athens, Ga.; Dr. Byron Blaisdell of Hartford, Conn.; Kenneth Gaston, Ralph Bolland and Whitney Young of New York.

This evening Mrs. Hughes will entertain at dinner the members of the wedding party, which will include Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Waddell of Greenfield, O. Several suites have been reserved at the Wardman Park Hotel for the out of town guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Waddell expect to make their home in New York. He is a member of the Harvard class of 1918 and served in the Air Service during the war.

Miss Hughes was graduated in 1916 from the National Cathedral School for Girls in this city, and from Wellesley in 1920.

Mr. Waddell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin G. Waddell of Greenfield, O. He is a graduate of Harvard and was in the air service during the World War.

1 KILLED, 2 HURT AS DERRICK FALLS WITH BIG GIRDER

Supporting Chain Snaps and 15-Ton Load Is Dropped on Workmen.

One workman was instantly killed and two others injured, one seriously, when a derrick lifting a fifteen-ton girder in the construction of the Italian Theatre, at Macdougall and Houston Streets, collapsed at 11 o'clock this morning and let the girder fall upon them.

The dead man was Nicolo Clero, forty-five years old, of No. 118 Cherry Street. He was married.

The more seriously injured man was Pasquale Tusco, thirty, of No. 256 William Street, Astoria, L. I. He was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital. The other victim was Buckley Barrett of No. 119 West Houston Street. The derrick was held erect by guy ropes and chains, the latter made fast to timbers sunk in the ground and then passing through the masonry of the building. One of these anchorages gave way with a loud report.

The three men were standing directly beneath it and it panned them to the ground. The Fire Department was called upon, but firemen could do nothing toward moving the great girder. Then Rescue Squad No. 1, under Chief Gray, was called and these men jacked up the beam and released the imprisoned men.

Two men, said to be firemen, were taken to the Charles Street station for questioning upon this disaster. Signs about the work indicated that the O'Day Construction Co., and the Harris Structural Steel Co., were contractors on the erection of the theatre, which is to be known as "The Macdougall."

MINERS TO MODIFY WAGE DEMANDS IN EFFORT FOR PEACE

Will Offer New Terms for Settlement to Operators To-Morrow.

SECRET SESSION HERE.

Seek Renewal of Parley, but Stand Firm on Working Conditions.

Officials of the United Mine Workers of America, with delegates from the anthracite districts, went into secret session here to-day to fix upon terms which, it was reported, they will offer to-morrow as an inducement to operators to continue negotiations toward settlement of the strike.

It is understood the miners are prepared to modify their demands for 20 per cent wage increases, as a result of a conference with the General Scale Committee just concluded at Hazleton, Pa.

They have announced, however, they will refuse absolutely to consider any part of the 21 per cent wage cuts demanded by the operators. They also will maintain an unaltered position toward those of their nineteen demands which pertain to better working conditions, shorter hours, adoption of certain machinery, and the universal application of the check-off system in hard coal mines, it was declared.

MINERS ATTACK NON-UNION MEN IN INDIANA FIELD

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., June 10.—Serious disorders broke out at the Riley and the Kern coal mines near here early to-day.

Calls were received at the Sheriff's office and Police Headquarters from owners of the Riley Mine asking for assistance. Sheriff Wolfe formed a posse and started for the mines.

A crowd of 100 men is reported to have marched to the Kern coal mine, which is near the Riley mine, and demanded that the men lay down their tools. The demand was refused, according to the report, and the men began throwing coal from cars and trucks on top of the mine.

Virgil Hetkins, a driver, was seriously injured when attacked by the men.

The mines attacked resumed operation recently after being idle since the suspension of work by the union miners. They are wagon mines, supplying local trade exclusively.

MITCHELL DEFEATS RAY IN BRITISH GOLF FINAL

Wine 1,000 Guineas Tournament Two Up and One to Play.

GLENEAGLES, Scotland, June 10.—(Associated Press.)—Abe Mitchell, one of Britain's best known golfers, won the thousand guineas golf tournament honors here to-day, defeating Edward Ray, former open champion, in the final, 2 up and 1 to play. A huge gallery followed the players.

Ray was two up at the ninth hole. The players were all square at the end of the first round.

Mitchell's play improved notably on the second round and he was three up on Ray at the turn.

GEORGES TURNS DOWN $150,000 RICKARD BID

Georges Carpentier, world's light heavyweight champion, to-day turned down Tex Rickard's offer of $150,000 to fight Harry Greb, American champion, for the title in the United States this summer.

"Handsome offer received too late. Have signed to meet Niles in September and Beckett in London in October," a cable read which Rickard received from Francois Descamps, the Frenchman's manager.

MOTHER OF MRS. WARD SUBPOENAED BEFORE JURY TO TELL OF HOUSE PARTY

WOMAN ARRESTED IN VIENNA FRAUD WELL KNOWN HERE

Former Mrs. B. F. Teal, of Gould Divorce Case, Accused in Several Cities.

VIENNA, June 10.—Genevieve Paddelford, who says she is the wife of a wealthy California oil trader, is under arrest here in connection with fraudulent operations in which business men of Lucerne, Paris and Vienna were the victims.

Eleven trunks containing costly furs and other goods alleged to have been obtained illegally were seized, as well as two silver mounted vases bearing the mark of the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, New York.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 10.—Genevieve Paddelford, under arrest in Vienna, is the wife of Dr. George E. Paddelford of Hollywood, Cal., former associate of E. L. Doheny, oil magnate. She is widely known for the part she had in the Gould divorce case, when she was known as Mrs. B. F. Teal, and at one time was Mrs. Elmore McKinney Toomey of St. Paul.

She has been separated for more than a year from Dr. Paddelford. Her departure from Los Angeles was followed by a maze of litigation over accounts which entangled valuable properties of the Paddelfords here.

Dr. Paddelford's attorney charged that she married under an assumed name. Mrs. Paddelford, however, asserted that her history had been well known to her husband.

A few months ago Mrs. Paddelford, with her daughter, Marie Paddelford, whose real name is Marie Tteal, and who was reported in grand opera, sailed from New York for Europe.

At the Ritz-Carlton to-day it was stated that Mrs. Paddelford and her daughter checked out of Room No. 410 about four months ago, after having occupied the room three or four weeks.

The hotel management, acting on advice from the Plaza, it was stated, insisted upon its guest keeping paid up, and the room and board bills were settled in full.

PENN. OLD GUARD BEATS PINCHOT MAN

W. Harry Baker of Harrisburg Elected State Chairman.

PHILADELPHIA, June 10.—The regular organization of the Republican Party in Pennsylvania won a victory over the supporters of Gifford Pinchot, Republican candidate for Governor, to-day when they elected W. Harry Baker of Harrisburg Chairman of the State Committee.

His opponent for the position was Gen. Asher Miner of Wilkes-Barre, a World War veteran.

Pinchot made a plea for party unity at the meeting of the committee. He urged that the finances of the committee be carefully kept. He spoke against assessment of office holders and announced that if his views were not adopted in this respect he would run his campaign "on his own hook."

Joseph O. Clark of Indiana County was chosen Secretary of the State Committee to succeed Mr. Baker.

Mrs. J. Gordon Fetterman of Delaware County was elected Assistant Secretary and Thomas W. Cunningham Treasurer. The elections were unanimous.

United States Senator George Wharton Pepper was elected unanimously as member of the Republican National Committee to succeed the late Senator Boies Penrose.

Mrs. Curtis Will Be Asked Also About Homecoming of Slayer Ward—Four Others Summoned to Appear.

Elder Ward and Other Son Being Sought by Servers to Throw Light on Stories of Blackmail Plot.

Subpoenas to appear Tuesday before the Westchester Grand Jury to give testimony as to the killing of Clarence Peters by Walter S. Ward were issued to-day for service on Mrs. M. W. Curtis, of Brooklyn, mother of Mrs. Walter S. Ward, and on George W. Sutton, a neighbor of the Ward family in New Rochelle.

Mrs. Curtis has been said to have been at the home of her daughter early on the morning when the body of Peters was found, and was certainly in the party which went to the Majestic the next afternoon to greet George S. Ward, Walter Ward's father, when he arrived on the Majestic and disappeared from public view.

Mr. Sutton was at the Ward home on the night of May 15. He has said in interviews that he saw nothing and heard nothing in the Ward home or after he returned to his own house which would help solve the mystery.

Five witnesses are now under subpoena. Two of the other three are George S. Ward and Ralph D. Ward, a brother of Walter. Subpoena servers were unable to find either yesterday. There was a fear they would evade service. Members of the family assured the authorities, however, that the two had gone to a bakery convention at Bedford Springs, Pa., and were motoring home and would undoubtedly accept service before Tuesday.

The fifth is Mme. Fifi Ziegler, a French governess, who, according to the information of District Attorney Weeks, was for a few days a member of the Ward household. The District Attorney has been told she was hired either as a temporary or permanent substitute for Miss Lulu Barrows, the nurse for the Ward children. At any rate, she has not been seen in New Rochelle since May 15 and Miss Barrows was there then and has been since.

Some of the Westchester officials have begun hinting at "powerful influences" that seem to be hampering them in their investigation. Sheriff Werner intimated a belief his telephone wires might have been tapped. In regard to the failure to find Rogers and Jackson, believed to be "Charlie Ross" and "Jack," in Syracuse, he was asked if Deputy Sheriff Miller still had hope. He replied he hadn't discussed the matter with Miller "for fear the telephone wires might be tapped." Sheriff Werner added:

"I want this man Jackson. If I ever find him I want Rogers also. I have every reason to believe that Jackson may be the key to the whole alleged plot against Walter Ward. I am going to get those two men—I'll get them if I have to go to hell to do it."

Though Sheriff Werner shows a persistent determination to spend his time and the county's money in following suggestions made by Cunningham, the race track follower,

TO INVESTIGATE COAL BOOSTING

Walsh Says Senate Will Act Unless Hoover Obtains Reductions.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Senator Walsh (Dem., Mass.), in a statement to-day, declared that a Congressional investigation would be made of bituminous coal operators who have used the Hoover price fixing agreement to raise prices unless Secretary Hoover obtains reduction of prices on contract coal "in a few days."
